Jason Opat has over 15 years of experience in the video and film industry. Jason and the staff at IMG have worked on 16 feature films, including Transformers, Iron Man, Get Smart, Eagle Eye, and other Hollywood blockbusters, creating futuristic software interfaces with 3D and motion graphics. He most recently designed the Autonomous Sales Kiosk (ASK) full-motion gesture-based interface that brings a virtual world kiosk to the street. He is a Bennington, Kansas native, and Chairman of the Kansas Film Commission.
